DON'T KNOW AMERICANS.

German papers are gloating over the sinking of the Tuscania, expressing the conviction that the incident "must" unfailingly dampen the spirits of Americans.

If evidence were wanted that Germany is lamentably ignorant of American character the above is sufficient. Americans are the last race on earth to be given to crying over spilt milk. Probably no nation in history has grown to commanding influence in the world over greater opposition than has the United States. Opposition is the bread of life to our people, and your red-blooded American has a mild contempt for any occupation that contains none of the element of danger or chance.

If proof were wanted to refute the insinuation of the Teutons that we would blanch at the dangers from their submarines, it is found in the fact that before the ink was hardly dry on the papers in this country giving the news of the sinking of the Tuscania, enlistments in all branches had jumped to records never reached before. Thousands are flocking to every branch of the service, many with the avowed purpose of avenging the heroes so shamelessly butchered.

Germany is due for a very rude awakening as to the real American character. She is due to discover that our aversion to war does not cover a craven heart, but arises rather from a national sense of justice and right. She is also due to learn that when that sense of justice and right has been flagrantly abused and insulted, there is no hesitation on our part to resort to the weapons of force so dear to the German heart.

Germany, however, is merely whistling to keep up her courage. She sees her doom when our troops reach Europe in force.

The American hen will tender a vote of thanks to Mr. Hoover for that commutation of her sentence.

Up to date we have heard no word from Mr. Hoover that the hole in the doughnut should be made smaller.

The world may, as some one has asserted, accept us at our own valuation, but we don't often catch it in a buying humor.

The familiar restaurant order of "ham and ---" is very appropriate these days. There's nothing doing after the "and."

It is so long since we have had our eye on Uncle Carranza that the old gink may be up to all sorts of devilment down there.

Try Corn Flour, a substitute for wheat flour.

American troops on the Champagne front. They wish the folks at home to understand, however, that there's nothing in a name.

The fellow who is planning a war garden is likely to take issue with Mr. Hoover on the wisdom of prolonging the life of the hen.

A Chicago lecturer says that how legs are not so common as they appear. Didn't know anyone had such poor taste as to fake how legs.

Austria tired of war? Well, it isn't the first time in history that an individual or a nation has started something that they couldn't stop.

German authorities are said to be suspicious of Trotsky's actions. It was a noted politician who remarked, "He's a man that won't stay bought."

Any fool may criticize, but criticism is not a remedy; that requires constructive ability. So unless you possess this, better hold your tongue and saw wood.

In deciding on a renewed German offensive, perhaps Hindenburg concluded Petrograd would be a more suitable place than Paris for that April fool dinner.

Safe guard the health of your family by using Kiln Dried Corn Meal.
Hudson, Hughes & Farnau.

Germans are said to be wearing clothes made of paper. The Kaiser should be able to furnish them some raw material if they can utilize "scraps."

Figuring it right down to the last analysis, it's up to the people of this country to decide which they love most, their boys or their stomachs. One or the other must be denied. Which?

If the critics would spend the same amount of energy in the effort to prevent the Government making mistakes that they spend in denunciation, the per cent of errors would be much smaller.

Prof. E. A. Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, who is just back from Russia, says the Bolsheviks know where they are going. Which is probably true as the road to Germany is no doubt plain enough.

The farmer who in these times would feed wheat to hogs, is an altogether new specimen of animal that we have not yet classified. Of all the utterly incomprehensible beings that this war has brought to public notice, he is easily the limit. If not a vowed friend of the Kaiser, he must be simply an animal in the form of a man, with a gizzard where there should be a heart.

FARM AT AUCTION

In this issue of the Record is the advertisement of the public sale of 172 acres of land near Shelby City in Boyle county, all of which is well improved, with splendid dwelling and out buildings. Any information desired call Mr. John S. Baughman at Danville.

A CALL MEETING.

All boosters and friends of the Chautauqua are invited to attend a call meeting for next Thursday evening at 7:30. The meeting for last Tuesday night was called off because of it conflicting with other meetings which required the presence of many of our Chautauqua boosters. The meeting is to be held in the parlor of the Woman's Club Room.

OVERLAND AGENT.

Mr. Roger Ahlridge informs us that he has just closed a contract for the agency of the Overland automobile and in a few days will be able to demonstrate the good qualities of this popular car to some of the good people of this county. Roger is a splendid young man and we wish him much success in the sale of the machine that has many admirers here and elsewhere.

TEACHERS MONEY LATER.

In reply to a letter of Miss Jennie Higgins, asking when the salary's of the teachers for the sixth and seventh month services will be paid, the Department of Education at Frankfort, replied that it could not tell just when such salaries will be paid, but thought the first of them would be paid in two or three weeks. It also intimated that it might be the end of the school year before the full amount is paid.

AUTO TRUCK BURNS.

While trying to thaw out a frozen pipe on the auto truck of J. F. Holtzclaw & Son at the Ford Garage last Thursday afternoon, with a gasoline torch the gasoline was ignited and for a few moments it looked as if a serious fire could not be averted. But the presence of mind of the mechanical force in pushing the truck, then in flames, to the street, no serious damage was done, except to the truck which was practically destroyed.

COURT DAY CROWD LARGE.

County Court Day brought a good sized crowd to town last Monday and there was some trading on the streets, especially in the mule line, although there were very few choice mules offered for sale.

There were a few sheep on the market, but practically no cattle, the latter being rather scarce at this time. J. E. Robinson sold two mules, one to Dr. Hawes, for $175 and one to J. M. Craig for $130; Wes Bourne sold a nice mule to Ed Clark for $250; N. W. Rogers bought a team of W. G. Gooch for $450 and one of M. D. Long, for $150; Center Brothers of Paint Lick, sold one to John Winn, for $190, one to Wilson Brandenburg for $260 and a team to Ben Bright for $440; Gene Rubie bought a team of John Kavanaugh for $340; W. T. Wilmore bought several head of horses during the day at prices ranging from $100 to $135.

EXPLOSIVE LICENSING AGENT.

Mr. Horace Herndon has just received his appointment from the Department of Interior, as Licensing Explosive Agent for Lancaster and Garrard county. While the duties of the Licensing Agent are not very clear to us, we are safe in saying that all persons who deal in Dynamite, Dynamite Caps, Blasting Powder and other such explosive material, are required to secure a license and these are the duties of Mr. Herndon to issue. The penalty is a heavy fine for dealing in these explosives without such license and it devolves upon all such dealers to see Mr. Herndon at once.

MULE KICK

Proves Fatal To Mule Lamb.

Mr. Mack Lamb, who lived near Bettis' store in this county, died at Dr. Acton's hospital this morning, from being kicked by a mule last Tuesday afternoon. He had just gotten a pair of young mules from Mr. Jess Sweeney and had driven one to a wagon and while attempting to unhitch the breast chain, the mule suddenly turned and kicked, striking Mr. Lamb in the stomach. Suffering intensely, a physician was called and an operation was decided on to save his life. It was found that his bowels had been severed in two places. He was operated upon last night, but from the start little hope was entertained that he would recover. He was conscious up to ten minutes of his death and made his will yesterday afternoon, when he was told he had a slight chance to get well. Mr. Lamb was a good man and his tragic death was a sad one indeed. He was a member of the Holiness church and took an active interest in it. The burial will take place some time Friday. He is survived by his wife and five children. Mr. Lamb was 41 years old.

GARRARD'S LIVE STOCK INDUSTRY ENORMOUS.

In making out the income tax list for the year 1917, some of our leading business men of the county are developing some interesting figures and brings to the surface some of Garrard county's live stock products. Mr. V. A. Lear, probably one of the largest live stock dealers in the county, handed us the following figures which makes interesting reading.

His books show that in the year 1917 he purchased in Garrard county 7,655 head of hogs, for which he paid the farmer $194,697.00; also during that year he bought 2,462 lambs, costing $21,871.00, and 725 head of cattle that drew on his bank account the sum of $49,625.00. This brings the total purchase of Mr. Lear during the year, for hogs, lambs and cattle, a total of $269,085, or several thousand dollars over the quarter of a million dollar mark.

INCOME TAX LAW EXPLAINED.

The court house was well filled last Monday afternoon to hear Collector John W. Hughes and Hon. Chas. C. Spaulding explain in detail how to make out your income tax and for nearly two hours was the audience entertained by these two gentlemen, each so well versed on this very important subject, that is occupying the minds of the taxpayers in this and other counties.

Judge Hughes expressed in a few words a great deal, when he said; "it takes men to win a battle, but it takes money to win a war."

Mr. Spaulding was the principal speaker and proved conclusively that he was well versed on the income tax law, and made it very clear to his audience, giving three divisions that should be most interested--business men, professional men and farmers. Many took advantage of his invitation to ask any questions which were not clear to them and they were answered in every detail.

Judge Hughes informs us that Garrard county is coming up nobly with her prorata of the income tax and so busy has his deputy, Mr. B. S. Hahn, been since he came into the county two weeks ago, he has consented to let him remain here until next Saturday.

Mr. Hahn has made many friends since he came among us and has looked well after the interests of the government, beside helping and answering many questions that have been put to him by the taxpayers, all of whom we are sure are grateful to him for this assistance.

SUGAR RULE VIOLATED.

Food Administrator Issues Warning.

Reports are continually coming in regarding the violations of the Food Administration's edict against hoarding.

County Food Administrator Dr. W. M. Elliott has given the Record the following statement about the matter:

"Information has been received by the County Food Administrator that many merchants are not observing the food regulation directing that no merchant shall sell to any town person, exceeding five pounds of sugar at a time or to any country customer more than ten pounds.

"Merchants have had plenty of time to familiarize themselves with this regulation and if the violation continues, the Food Administrator will be compelled to take drastic action to compel observance on the part of those who will not voluntarily do so.

W. M. Elliott,
County Food Administrator.

SEED CORN MUST BE TESTED.

Agricultural Station Sends Out Warning To Farmers.

County Agricultural Agent, W. H. Rogers, has received an important bulletin from the College of Agriculture in reference to seed corn, which is presenting such a problem to the farmers all over the country. The bulletin says in part:

Only the earliest gathered corn is fit for seed. Most of the corn that was in the field during the zero weather of December, or corn gathered before that date, is worthless for seed. The Experiment Station has tested such corn from different counties of the State, and the result is the same in all cases--not more than ten to twenty per cent of it will grow.

All farmers who did not gather and dry their seed corn early, and most did not, should immediately take a quantity of the earliest gathered corn from their cribs and begin to test it for germination. Not an ear should be planted in Kentucky this year without testing. Failure to make a germination test of seed is likely to mean a loss of hundreds of dollars to the farmer neglecting it.

Don't depend upon buying seed. Little good seed can be bought, for the conditions are similar all over the country and are worse in the northern states. The small stock of good seed corn in the hands of seed growers and dealers will be exhausted very quickly. Don't buy seed corn at all unless the germination is guaranteed.

If you have seed corn save it all for seed. If you have new corn that is fit for seed, save it all. The State and country need it. Don't neglect to pick out and test the corn as soon as possible.

It is a simple, harmless preparation, that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

The most unfortunate incident that has arisen since this country's entrance into the war is the dispute between the railroads and the brotherhoods of trainmen and conductors. The dispute is fraught with much danger to the transportation interests of the country. The seriousness of the charges made by Messrs W. G. Lee and A. B. Garretson, heads of the trainmen and conductors, respectively, would seem to leave the Government no choice but to fully investigate the entire matter.

Messrs Lee and Garretson allege that the freight congestion is the direct result of conspiracy on the part of the managements of the various systems to discredit government control and the eight-hour law. Not only in this serious charge made by both these great labor leaders, but it is substantiated by numerous other members of the two brotherhoods.

It is almost unbelievable that the heads of our great transportation systems could so far forget the first duty of American citizens as to exploit their country in this great crisis of her history, for purely selfish ends. On the other hand it is almost unbelievable that two such prominent leaders of the people should be deceived into laying a charge of such seriousness unless they were firmly convinced of its truth.

The country had thought that the graceful manner in which government control was accepted by the management of our railroads, that all were in perfect harmony with the Administration in the effort to bring the war to bring the war to a speedy close. We were feeling proud of our transportation systems and pointing to them as evidences of the deep loyalty of all classes of our people. We had also rejoiced that the great labor organizations were standing so staunchly by the government and would throw their great strength to the making of the world safe for democracy.

But this controversy is of too serious a nature to be passed by. It involves two of the most powerful interests in the country, and the very life of the nation is affected. If the charge is true, there is treason to deal with. If false, then two of America's greatest labor leaders have sadly fallen down on their jobs and have brought their organizations into bad repute. Since the matter has gone so far, it is up to Congress to thoroughly investigate. No preliminary probe should be tolerated, but the country should be made fully acquainted with every fact. The railroads are more than ever the arteries of the nation in this crisis, and consideration for no man or set of men should be permitted to interfere with their free operation. Use the probe and probe to the bottom.

He Removed the Danger Signal

Frank W. Sherman, Laconia, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble, had a tired feeling in my back, did not have any ambition and felt all tired out. I used Foley Kidney Pills and in a few days began to feel better, and now I have entirely recovered and have had no return of my painful symptoms." One cannot help becoming nervous and feeling tired and worn out when the kidneys fail to filter and throw out of the system the poisonous waste matter that causes kidney troubles and bladder ailments. Backache is one of Nature's danger signals that the kidneys are clogged up and inactive. It is often followed by rheumatism, annoying bladder or urinary disorders, pus, swelling under the eyes, swollen ankles and painful joints. Foley Kidney Pills get right at the source of trouble. They invigorate the kidneys to healthy action and when the kidneys properly perform their functions the poisonous waste matter is eliminated from the system.

A traveler in Sweden tells of a pretty custom: "Not a peasant will sit down with his children to a Christmas dinner, indoors, till he has first raised aloft a Christmas dinner for the little birds that live in the cold and snow without."

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter . . . suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed . . . the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at . . . time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at all. Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere. We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui. As evidence of the radical change in sentiment in this country within the past few years, we would cite our readers to the evolution of the income tax. But a few years ago the man would have proposed an income tax in Congress would have effectually signed his own political death warrant. We had come to believe from more than a century's experience that indirect taxation was the only kind of taxation for which the American people would stand. Even in our state and municipal governments personal earnings play no part in the scheme of taxation and even personal property is largely exempt.

But as the expenses of government bounced to unheard-of figures, it became evident that direct taxation would have to be resorted to, and the incomes of the land were selected as the heat able to bear it. This tax was at first very light and only placed on very large incomes.

Gradually the limit has been lowered, until now all yearly incomes of $1000 for single men and $2000 for men of family, must come to the help of their government.

But why the limit? Why should the man who makes $999 a year be exempt from the tax simply because he failed to annex that odd dollar? He may be far better able to spare the money than the man who earns $1000 or even $1500 a year.

Gettin right down to the gist of the matter, isn't any limit arbitrary and unjust? That depends entirely upon the light in which we view the matter of taxation. If we regard it as a burden, then perhaps we should set a limit under which no man should be asked to share in it. But is taxation entirely a burden? Isn't it rather one of our greatest privileges that we be permitted to share in the maintenance of the government that protects us and makes us what we are?

If we would go deep enough into this question of taxation we might discover that the aloofness with which many Americans view their government arises largely from the fact that they have never been made to feel that they sustained any real vital relation to that government; that it is an institution for which they are in no way responsible and in which they owe none but a negative allegiance.

Americans might well begin thinking of a universal tax. It may come and sooner than many of us suspect.

WE DO NOT KNOW IT MAY BE SO.

On Monday afternoon last, as J. I. Hamilton was walking across an old meadow, where he had gone to drive up his cows for the night, he was astonished suddenly to see large numbers of grasshoppers jumping out of his path as he proceeded through the field. They were of various sizes and of every hue of the rainbow, but none had wings. Mr. Hamilton could scarcely believe his eyes. Here, in mid-winter, was a distinct anomaly in the realm of entomology. He was puzzled.

After recovering from his surprise, however, he set about to capture a few specimens, and presently succeeded in doing so, but only after much quick and agile work. These he enclosed in a paper carton and brought to town, where they have been accepted as concrete evidence of his veracity. They have since succumbed to the cold.

Only once before in the history of this country has a phenomenon of this sort been seen in winter, and that was when Josh Kemper noticed on his farm a similar spectacle early in February 1888. In that case, as in this, the insects were observed immediately after heavy snows had been melted by a hot sun after they had been lying on the ground a long time.

A solution of this mystifying incident undoubtedly lies in the fact that these grasshoppers had hatched prematurely under the warm protective blanket of snow which has covered the earth nearly all winter. They were doomed to declassification, of course, upon the approach of any cold weather that might follow, and, since we have already experienced another very cold snap, there is no longer any trace of the insects which caused Mr. Hamilton's such a lively surprise.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Our people were made sad this week because death summoned one of our young men from our midst. All our hearts go out in sympathy to the mother and father, brothers and sisters. This reminds us that:

"Our hearts though strong and brave,
 Still like muffled drums are beating
 Funeral marches to the grave."

Therefore, "let us work while it is day, for night cometh when no man can work. Let us be up and about our father's business. For there are those bent down with sorrow and care, those in destitute circumstances, those discouraged and despondent, who need and yearn for the blessed ministry of christian love." The Christian religion is always defined in terms of service. James' definition being an example; "Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

The Bible school was a little short on attendance last Sunday, only 164 were present. If you want to be a better christian, attend the Bible school and receive training for service. You never outgrow the Bible school. It may be that you are so "near sighted" that it appears small at a distance.

Just a word to parents, teachers and officers in the Bible school: Were you or your child among those who left the Bible school and neglect the hour of worship. Listen, point is this, the worship does not need you, you need the worship. Our children should be trained to attend the hour of worship with becoming reverence, else someday you will ask yourself the question, "why is it that my son or daughter, seems indifferent toward the worship."

Just as soon as our Duplex Envelopes arrive you will receive your packet.

For the benefit of the boys and girls who attend the morning worship next Sunday, I will tell a story.

WANTED, MEN! MEN! MEN!!!

The teaching service of the church will begin 9:45 a. m., the hour of worship begins 10:55 a. m. For those who attend the churches services we assure a most cordial welcome.

The sermon theme for Sunday morning will be "The Lord's Day".

Has Great Specific Gravity.

Mercury has the greatest specific gravity of all liquids, but recently another has been discovered which is also as heavy that stones of all kinds—granite, limestone, quartz, etc., float in it. It is a saturated aqueous solution of tung stoptorate. Its specific gravity is 3.8, whereas that of ordinary rock does not exceed 2.7. Only a few precious stones have a specific gravity greater than that of this liquid, for which reason it is proposed to employ it for the separation of such stones from masses of broken rock.

AUTOMATIC INSURANCE COVERS MEN LOST ON TORPEDOED TRANSPORT

Any American soldiers lost on the torpedoed transport were protected by United States Government insurance and Government compensation. Those who had not applied for insurance were covered by automatic insurance which is payable to a wife, child, or widowed mother. The automatic insurance aggregates about $4,300, netting $25 a month for 240 months. Insurance that had been applied for is payable to a much larger class of beneficiaries and can go as high as $10,000, netting $57.50 a month for 240 months.

The compensation in case of death, given by the Government without charge and regardless of rank or pay, ranges from $20, to $75 a month, based on the number of dependents. Payments under the compensation feature of the military and naval insurance act in case of death are payable to a widow, child, or dependent widowed mother. The automatic insurance ceased on February 12, but the compensation feature of the act is a separate provision. The scale of compensation in case of death follows:

- For a widow alone, $25.
- For a widow and one child, $35.
- For a widow and two children, $47.50, with $5 for every additional child up to two.
- If there be no widow, then for one child, $20.
- For two children, $30.
- For three children, $40, with $5 for each additional child up to two.
- For a widowed mother, $20. The amount payable under this subdivision shall not be greater than a sum which, when added to the total amount payable to the widow and children, does not exceed $75.

RICHARDSON

After a lingering illness of Bright's Disease, Mr. William Richardson, died at his home on the Danville road last night. He was 38 years old and a member of the Holiness church. He is survived by his wife and two children. He will be buried in the Lancaster cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

McMAKIN.

Mr. S. H. McMakin, after a lingering illness of cardiac asthma, died at his home in Simpsonville, on February 20. He leaves a wife who was Miss Katherine Arnold, of Garrard county. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Simpsonville, after which interment took place in Grove Hill Cemetery, in Shelbyville.

CHEATHAM.

After an illness of several months, Mr. Napoleon B. Cheatham, died at his home in Bryantsville last Friday night. Mr. Cheatham was one of the best known citizens in this section of the county, where he was born about sixty eight years ago and where he had lived all his life. He was a devout member of the Methodist church, being one of its most earnest members for the past twenty years. He will be greatly missed in the community where he has for the last few years nursed the sick and comforted the distressed in their afflictions.

Mr. Cheatham is survived by his wife and two children, Dan Cheatham of Ashland, Ky, and Mrs. B. H. Halcomb of Bryantsville.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. S. Conant, of Wilmore, last Sunday morning, after which interment took place in the Lancaster cemetery.

WEST.

Willie Belle West, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. West, died at the family home on Danville street at 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and with his passing Lancaster loses one of her model young men.

The young man had been a long sufferer, and last September his parents took him to Asheville N. C., where the change of climate seemed to benefit him; he returned home in November for a visit, intending to return to Asheville, but the long siege of severe weather, together with his rapidly declining health prevented.

Throughout his long illness he was never heard to utter a word of complaint, and during the last few days his efforts were exerted to be as little trouble to his friends and loved ones as possible, a trait which characterized his entire life.

Willie Belle West was born in Lancaster on the 31st day of March 1900, and his entire life had been spent here. After attending the Lancaster school, he went to Millersburg Military Institute for one term, and it was his intention, and he was very anxious to complete his education at that school, but the condition of his health prevented.

Everyone knew him, and to know him was to love him, for he had many traits which attracted people to him, chief of which was his affability, always a pleasant smile and a cheerful greeting for everyone, and even when in wretched health and undergoing severe suffering his answer to the many solicitous inquiries of his friends was that "he was feeling fine". His popularity among his associates and friends was attested to by the silent grief of his former schoolmates of the High school, who attended in a body the funeral of their one time school fellow. The esteem in which he was held in the community, the town and the county, was attested to by the vast crowd of people who followed his remains to their last resting place, and by the great mass of beautiful flowers which blanketed his grave.

When twelve years of age he united with the Christian church and the habit of regular and punctual attendance formed in his Sunday school going days, was continued as long as his health would permit.

Funeral services at the grave at two thirty o'clock Monday afternoon were conducted by Rev. S. Moorman and Hudson.

Besides his mother and father, he is survived by one brother, Joe West, of this city, one half brother, Burnam T. West of Iowa, and three half sisters, Miss Bettie West of this place, Mrs. Ethel West Darnold of Winnipeg Canada, and Mrs. Robert Emhry of Lexington.

The deep sympathy of the entire community for the bereaved ones is shared by the Record.

Taking Oil Stains From Concrete.
 It has been found that oil stains on concrete floors may be removed by using a mixture of one pound of oxalic acid in three gallons of water, with enough wheat flour added to make a paste that can be applied with a brush. Allow the application to remain for two days, and then remove it with clean water and a scrubbing brush. A second application may be necessary in stubborn cases.

TRANSPORTATION FOR ALL FARM PRODUCTS.

No List Of "Nonessentials" To Be Promulgated.

Representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, after conferences at the office of the Director General of Railroads, were informed that the Director General has not promulgated a list of nonessential farm products which will be denied transportation facilities, and does not contemplate issuing any such order. Request was made that the Department of Agriculture disseminate this information as widely as possible to the farmers of the country.

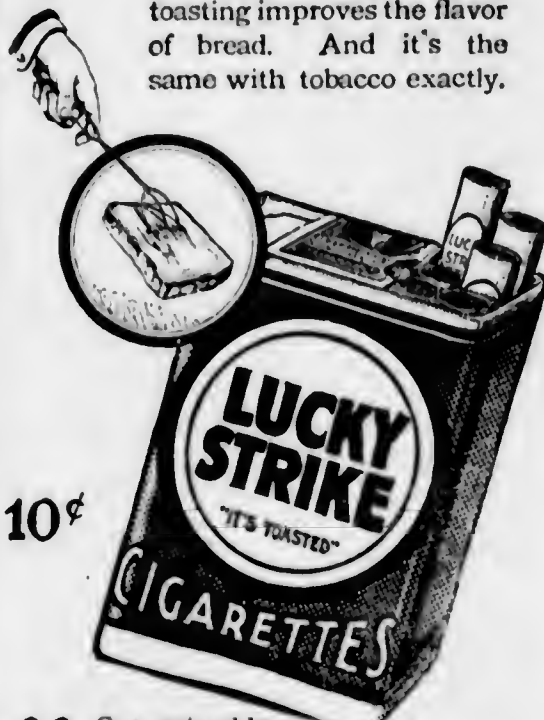

The Director General believes that under the plan now being formulated it will be possible to provide adequate transportation for farm products this year. Farmers should place orders for cars, when needed, with local freight agent, as has always been the practice.

RED BLOOD AMERICANISM IS COMING TO THE FRONT

Right now this Country is calling for men of stout hearts and sound bodies. It needs them to keep Old Glory triumphant and unsullied in the air.

The exigency now confronting us emphasizes, as nothing else could do, the importance of good health, both as an individual and national asset.

Mrs. Henry Simpson, who was the guest Monday of Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Simpson, has returned to her home in Lexington. She was accompanied home by her little daughter, Elizabeth who has been spending several days with her grand-parents.

Among the out-of-town guests to attend the funeral of Willie Belle West were Mrs. Shelly Harp, Miss Lena Smiley, Miss Nina Smiley, Mrs. Phergo, Mrs. Ike Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Embury and sons, of Lexington, and Mrs. O. Hanson, of Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Embury entertained at their country home last Tuesday evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Moorman. Beside the guests of honor, those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haselden, Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Eastin, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Eastin, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davidson.

It is very gratifying here to learn of the promotion to a Captaincy of Dr. W. L. Carman. The genial doctor volunteered his services immediately after the outbreak of the war and was commissioned a Lieutenant. The promotion is quite an honor and a well deserved one. Capt. Carman is now stationed at Camp Meade, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Price who have been spending the winter in Florida, and are still enjoying the sunshine of the south, are being entertained by friends, as the following from the Tampa Morning Tribune indicates.

Wednesday Mrs. M. H. Mabry entertained at luncheon at the Tampa Bay hotel, complimenting her sisters, Mrs. Thomas Johnson Price, of Kentucky and Mrs. G. Frederick Smith, of Stanford. Her guests were Mrs. Price, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Frank Bentley and Mrs. Giddings Mabry.

HOW TO USE CORN FLOUR.

The necessity of conserving wheat flour is calling attention of housewives to other flours. The following receipts for corn flour are recommended as having been found satisfactory.

HUTTERMILK BISCUITS.

with Corn Flour.

2 heaping teaspoons Corn Flour, 1 heaping teaspoon Wheat Flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoonful soda, 2 teaspoonfuls salt, 1/2 teaspoonful lard.

Enough buttermilk to make soft dough; This will make about two dozen and a half biscuits. By leaving out the soda and buttermilk and adding more baking powder, and sweet milk, you get about the same results. If you allow dough to stand thirty minutes before baking results are a great deal better.

THE CRUST, with Corn Flour.

1 1/2 teaspoonfuls Corn Flour, 1/2 teaspoonful wheat flour, 1/2 teaspoonful lard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon Baking powder, 1/2 teaspoonful sugar.

Mix the lard well with the dry ingredients then add enough real hot water to make dough the right consistency. Enough for two large pies.

GRIDDLE CAKES, with Corn Flour.

2 cup Corn flour, 1 1/2 cups sweet milk, 2 teaspoons melted butter, 1 egg, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon Salt.

Mix and sift the dry ingredients and add the milk and beaten egg. Beat well, add the butter. Bake on a hot griddle.

Easy Thing to Decide.

Any man may know whether he is wise or foolish. If he is wise he can learn something even from a fool. If he is a fool he won't learn even from a wise man.

Sex on Plants.

The chief reason for the existence of sex in plants seems to be the need for a constant change, a rejuvenation and modification of the progeny through uniting the characters of two individuals into one, thus new forms arise.

Had Mania for Horse Hair.

Pulling hairs from the tails of horses was the charge against a man in London the other day. He was charged with having stolen four and a quarter pounds of horse hair from a livery company, and the claim was that he had deliberately pulled this out of the tails of the company's horses. Found guilty, the man was fined $25.

Star for Every State.

It is literally true that there is a star in our flag for every state. The law of 1912 that gave the stars their present arrangement provided that the stars, if you start at the upper left-hand corner and read each of the six rows from left to right, shall correspond to each state in the order of its ratification of the Constitution.

Names That Signify Nothing.

Really, what is in a name? Irish stew is little known in Ireland; Roman candles did not originate in Rome; what is known in baseball parlance as a "Texas League" happens in many games played outside of the Texas league as those played in it; the Irish daisy is in reality a dandelion; Netherlands don't make it a custom to pay for their own refreshments while eating and drinking with friends, and thereby make constant what is known as a "Dutch treat." And so on, for infinite examples.

Windmill Palm a Freak.
The hardest palm at all common is California's Trachycarpus excelsus, known as the windmill palm. Not alone is it hardy in withstanding low temperatures, but it is tough and will endure rough treatment, but boxed it is not a success.

Found Live Crab in Bottle.
A Maine fisherman claims to have pulled up a pint milk bottle with a live crab in it. It is evident that the crab had crawled into the bottle when small and stayed there until it grew so large it could not get out. The bottle was crusted with barnacles when it was pulled up, which shows it had been in the water a long time.

Lumping Them On.
A tiny Kokomo girl made it her custom to enumerate by name all the members of the family and the close friends, in the evening prayers, but at the close of a strenuous day of play last week she was tired, and after the opening petition she yawned, then added sleepily: "And please just bless the whole bunch."—Indianapolis News.

Crucifix Probably Centuries Old.
An old crucifix bearing the date 1734 was found by a man in Tyrone, Ireland, the other day, while he was engaged in putting a new floor in his kitchen to replace an earthen one. The crucifix was found about 15 inches below the surface, embedded in the clay, and appeared to have been carved out of a solid block of white oak. It was in a perfect state of preservation, save that the right arm of the cross was somewhat decayed.

Boils Eggs by Central's Ring.
A telephone subscriber in Newark asked his operator to ring his bell in three minutes, and immediately hung up his receiver. At the appointed time the supervisor rang on the line and the subscriber responded merely with "Thank you." Later he called again and thanked the operator, and explained that he had been boiling eggs and wanted to time them. They had been cooked to the queen's taste, he said.—Louis's Companion.

What Canals May Accomplish.
It is possible that by the construction of canals we may yet see the day when there will be great fleets away up in the country where once upon a time the highland clans held sway, where Rob Roy Macgregor raided for cattle and fought with the Clan Macfarlane, and where there is still the glimmer that was thrown over it by the genius of Sir Walter Scott. If so, it will be one of the most remarkable transformations in the history of any country.

Think of it! Mr. Palmer here's a remedy for cholera that is safe under a "Legal Guarantee Bond." How can you afford to take chances against long cholera when you can get a remedy on such terms?

Water's Passage Through Wood.
Water passes through real wood when ascending a tree, largely through the last season's growth. With deciduous trees the great demand for water comes in the spring when the young leaves put forth. After that upward sap movement is much less.

Four Earthquakes in One Morning.
Four seismic disturbances occurred in Japan on the morning of November 5. The first shock occurred at 9:58 and lasted for a minute and a half. It was weak. At 11:25 a brief but violent quiver was felt. Five minutes later a strong but horizontal vibration followed. The final shock, at 11:54, was hardly noticeable. Scientists declare the center of disturbance to have been fifty miles from Tokyo.—East and West News.

THE RED CROSS ON A FIELD OF WHITE.

The following is from the pen of Miss Francis Ogilvie, of Princeton, Ky., being a daughter of Dr. Woods Ogilvie, Captain in the Medical Reserve Corps of the U. S. Army and now stationed at Camp Upton, I. I. The writer of this beautiful poem is also a niece of Mrs. Harace Herndon of this city:
Alone in a dugout, Over There,
Out in a front line trench
Now in the heat of the battle's fray,
Side by side with the French,
Again in a shell hole, yawning wide
Only a soldier's fate—
While over the stretch of No Man's Land
Was chanted the Hymn of Hate,
All night long in the driving sleet
Maudling the guns for you—
All day long in the snow or rain
For the Red, the White and the Blue,
There in the ruins of a Belgian town
Homeless and destitute
Calling its mother, a Belgian child,
The mother whose lips are mute,
She who was slain in a nightly raid
As a Boche's bullet fell,
Where is the father? Where lodged?
But God in His mercy can tell.
Is there none to answer the plea for aid?
To hear the cry in the night?
There is something yes, and the sign is this
The Cross of Red on a Field of White.
Over the battle field, bullet torn
Borne by those who dare—
Showing the wounded that God still reigns,
There are those at home who care.
Shall that soldier boy on the Flanders front
Fighting your fight for you
Suffer the pangs of the freezing cold
While the Red, the White and the Blue
Waves o'er a nation of loyal hearts
With hands that long to do
We must work for the soldiers Over There,
Work with our hands and heart,
There is knitting and sewing that must be done
And that is the woman's part.
There's a part for the men who cannot go
To help the boy who can,
For there's a mercy and love in the heart of him
Who gives to his fellow man,
Will you work? Will you give, Oh, America?
Will you help in the cause of Right?
Will you sacrifice that the emblem live?

SHORT CUTS IN NEEDLEWORK

Suggestions That Will Save a Few Minutes' Time Are Most Welcome in These Busy Days.

Time is way above par nowadays. Everybody is busy. No one has time to devote to fine stitches if big stitches will do. Hence any suggestion which will save a few minutes by the clock are welcome. What about these?

If you need a casing for the top of a camisole or nightgown or kiddie's frock in a hurry, try making a wide cut-stitch on the outside of the garment with a heavy silk or mercerized cotton. You can run a ribbon or tape through this and make it decorative, as well as useful, in a much shorter time than stitching on the usual bias facing. There is another way, too, of crocheting a row of open flat mesh and sewing it on. This takes a little longer but wears well for wash clothes.

White-knitting needles slip through the wool much quicker if they are first filed on a plain kitchen file, as you would a lead pencil, into a long smooth point.

In hemming towels or table linen don't stop to make knots. They are unsightly, anyway. Just run the stitches for the first half-inch very small with a back stitch or two, and do the same at the end of a thread. With the new thread begin over the last few stitches in the same way and you will never need a knot.

A loose feather stitch for sewing tucks into dresses for growing girls is much better than either hand embroidery or machine stitching. It wears well, takes but a short time and does not show the marks of the stitches when removed.

Don't pin patterns if you are in a hurry; you are sure to pin crookedly. Use weights of books, heavy desk articles or small bags filled with sand for the purpose. They hold as well as pins and are a much simpler proposition.

IMPART AIR OF SPRINGTIME

Silk Floss Flowers on the Side of Narrow Collar of Girls' Suits Look Like Fresh Nosegays.

Two advance models for misses have a new embroidered touch which lends them a distinct springtime atmosphere. Silk floss flowers in natural coloring embellish the right side of youthful narrow shawl collars, looking as though fresh nosegays had been tucked in, says Women's Wear.

A small pink carnation with foliage is very chic on an Eton suit of navy tricot, which may also be worn as a dress. Black satin folds are used to define the tailored shapeliness of collar and cuffs whose curves match, as well as a horizontal beltlike panel which offsets the double-breasted closing. Two flying panels, one piece above shoulder blades, give an unusual back to this Eton, for the ends of each are finished with cord fringe.

There is a onesided tuck on the narrow skirt which completes this model. The other, a nifty slit of navy fabric twill, has a blue embroidered on it, tracings of silver thread simply marking the shadow cast by the blending shades of floss.

Olding inset panels on the narrow belt and others of larger dimensions arranged halfway between skirt section and bodice at center back and one at either side front on the skirt section itself to serve as pockets, are other features that are "different."

The New Bedtime Bow.
Decorative headpieces for night wear are reported from London as having taken the place of bonnet caps. They are known as bedtime bows.

SIMPLE, YET ELABORATE.

Though its lines are simple as simple can be, this distinctive afternoon gown of blue silk is charmingly elaborate. The reason is found in the rich embroidery with which the gown is trimmed. The embroidery is done in gay, though harmonizing, tones of blue, green, yellow and red silk. It outlines the deep armholes and appears again on the cuffs, besides being used for a large irregular patch on each side panel. A bead fringe in matching colors falls from the front at the waist line.

For Croup--Mothers--Always Keep this Handy

The day of the Croup scare is over for those parents who wisely keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the home ready for instant use.

W. C. Allen, Rowley, Mo., writes: "I have raised a family of four children, and have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound with all of them. I find it the best croup and cough medicine I have ever used and I have used it for eight or ten years, and can recommend it for croup."

If toward nightfall the little ones grow hoarse or croupy, if their breathing becomes wheezy and stuffy, give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly and it will ward off an attack of croup.

If you are awakened by the hoarse, raspy cough that means croup, give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound at once. It will ease the little sufferer quickly, cut the thick choking phlegm, and soon they will have easy breathing and peaceful quiet sleep.

A man that is clean inside and out, who neither looks up to the right nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing, and can win without bragging; who is considerate of women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat, and lets other people have theirs.—Exchange.

Onions.

Even now few people perfectly realize the beneficial effect that this vegetable has on the system, and it is too often ignored on account of its pungency of flavor and smell. A well-bolled Spanish onion will induce sleep when most other things fail, and on this account alone it should frequently form a supply dish for the brain-weary man or woman of business.

Depends on the Company.

As to whether one should walk alone, or in company, authorities differ. For instance, Robert Louis Stevenson said that the only way to enjoy a walk is to take it alone. On the other hand, Mark Twain declared that the chief enjoyment of a walk lies, not in the walk itself, but in the talking that accompanies it.

Losses in Battle.

In the campaign in Italy in 1850 rifles were used on both sides, and the proportion of casualties to combatants was at Magenta and Solferino one-eleventh. In the Franco-Prussian war, when both sides were armed with breech-loading rifles, the average proportion of killed and wounded at Worth, Spicheren, Mars-la-Tour, Gravelotte, and Sedan was one-ninth, the heaviest loss being at Mars-la-Tour, where it was one-sixth, and the smallest at Sedan, where it was one-twelfth.

And we further agree to act as Deputy Game Wardens for the purpose of carrying out this agreement. NO WOOL IS USED IN NEW CLOTHES

Spring Gowns Are Made of Crepe de Chine, Tussah and Silks.

WILL CLING TO THE FIGURE

Fate of the Straight Silhouette Still in Some Doubt—Canteen Coat New Garment for Red Cross Workers.

New York.—It looks as though the wool conservation will be up to the men. The good offices of the French ambassador, M. Jusserand, were asked by the wool men here in order that the French designers would gladly co-operate with the American movement for the slim silhouette and the least possible use of wool.

However, it was not necessary for the French ambassador to lay much stress upon his request to Paris.

The French government had made the same request to its designers in the American government, and it was compliance with that request that created the narrow silhouette and the short, scant skirt which came out in French models last autumn.

Canteen coat for war workers. It was created by a Fifth avenue designer and is made of dark blue cloth with wide lap-over in front that allows the use of bloomers instead of a skirt beneath it, if desired. The red cross is made of cloth and placed on a square of horizon blue. The cap is of the material.

At any rate, the request for the gowns that are made of less than 4 1/2 yards of wool has been met in Paris by an almost total elimination of wool in the new spring models.

Mme. Paquin, who is the head of the association of designers over there, says that America need have nothing to fear in regard to extravagance with material in the new clothes.

The silhouette is to be as slim as it was in the directoire. Every material that can possibly be woven will be used as a substitute for wool. Twine will be used for embroidery whenever available, instead of worsted.

Therefore, with the joining of hands across the sea and no drastic excuse for using wool, it is possible to predict that the early season will be filled with gowns and suits of tussah, silk, crepe de chine and artificial silk jersey.

What Men Can Do.

We women can wear thin materials in spring and summer, but men can't, or won't. Enormous quantities of worsteds are consumed for their suits throughout the year.

The many overcoats which were supplied by the thousands and took up a great mass of wool, were the first to come under the ban of extravagance as soon as the soldiers in France found that they were too long for the mud of Flanders and Picardy.

Other bits of extravagance which are unnecessary are included in a long list published by the manufacturers of men's clothing. A reduction in yardage will result if these certain features are eliminated.

From this list it would appear that the manufacturers of men's costumes have really gone into the conservation with determination. It is quite astonishing how many small things they have found that can be eliminated without detriment to the appearance or serviceability of the garment.

Their list is a lesson in thrift. Think of taking flaps from the pockets of vests, plying from seams, collars from vests, outside cash pockets from coats, tunnel loops from trousers and tabs from overcoat sleeves and finding that the conservation of material in these small features is enough to outfit a great number of soldiers.

Optimistic Thought.
He who reasons rules may with safety rule others.

Honey and Syrups.
Honey and syrups instead of sugar will make victory just as sweet—and bring it much sooner.

Self-Centered.
It isn't wholly because of a chilly reception that some people are all wrapped up in themselves.—Philadelphia Record.

Turkish Language Easy.
The Turkish language, although spoken in many dialects, is so uniform in plan that anyone who speaks Ottoman Turkish can be understood while traveling from European Turkey through Asia Minor and Central Asia.

Mending Umbrellas.
When the handle comes off an umbrella—one of the kind with steel rods—clean out the holes and fill it with powdered sulphur. Heat the end of the rod red-hot and push it down into the sulphur. This will fuse the sulphur and cement the rod in place.

Cross of St. Andrew.
The Cross of St. Andrew is white satin on blue ground, to represent the cross on which the Scottish patron saint suffered martyrdom. It is combined with crosses of St. George and St. Patrick in the Union Jack of Great Britain.

Keep Smiling.
Best advice of all is contained in the last words of the chorus of a popular song: "Smile—smile—smile!" However, you must smile from the heart, not merely twitching facial muscles mechanically, but flashing a message of friendliness and jollity from the heart.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Using Water as a Weight.
A pint of water, or of wheat, sugar or butter weighs about one pound and may safely be used as a basis for weights and measures. This knowledge is often valuable to the farmer who keeps seed wheat on hand, for it may be made to weigh, by balance, all other farm products.

Opportunities.
The reason opportunities are neither recognized nor embraced lies in the composition of the tissues, the flesh, and the blood, called man. One man perceives one kind, his blood brother sees a lesser or many better ones. John pushes through the habits he acquires all too early; James overcomes the temperament he and his nine brothers partly inherited.

Thought He Was "Kidding."
One day a Dublin grave digger working very hard broke his spade. He sent his little son for a new one and told him to tell the shopkeeper he would pay him when he was finished. When the boy came back empty-handed, his father asked him why he did not bring the spade. "Because," said the boy, "he chased me away when I told him you would pay him when you came out of the grave."

When You Hone a Razor.
If razor hones are placed upon strong magnets razors will be held flat and can be sharpened more rapidly and accurately.

HOW TO MAKE HAIRPIN LACE
Simple Directions Given for Work Which May Be Used in the Place of Hemstitching.

Try making the new hairpin lace and using it in place of hemstitching. Make a loop with thread or crochet cotton in middle of hairpin. Place crochet needle on under side of hairpin, and then hairpin. Catch thread with crochet hook and draw through loop. With crochet needle in loop in middle of thread of hairpin catch loop around the hairpin. You will then have two loops of thread on crochet needle, then catch thread with needle and pull it through the two. You will have the one loop in middle of hairpin to start again.

If you wish to make a centerpiece of leaves, try this stitch. First work an ordinary stitch from side to side, following the outline on the leaf. A cat stitch is a series of stitches taken from side to side between two lines. After the leaf is filled with cat stitches, take a new thread, and starting up the top of the leaf take two tight buttonhole stitches where the threms cross, then carry the thread across to the next crossed stitches on opposite side and again take two buttonhole stitches. Work back and forth in this way until the leaf is filled. Cover the marked line of the leaf with Kensington outline and it is complete.
